PTA formed

Nearly half a hundred parents, teachers and trustees, all interested in the education of Elk Point's young people, gathered Wednesday, December 7 at F. G. Miller High School to lay the foundation for a Parent-Teacher Association.

The gathering heard from Principal Jim Hawkins and Alberta Federation of Home and School Associations Regional Representative Shirley Bryden before deciding to form an association.

'By working together we can develop a really good situation, and can keep abreast of changes in the school and community,' Hawkins said. He told the audience he had found 'good families with achievement-oriented children' in Elk Point, and had set the goals of formative evaluation of teachers, development of a policy handbook for students, enhanced student pride in the school, and open communication between school and community, for his first year as Principal here.

Hawkins would like to see FGM 'as much a community school as possible' with classrooms used for non-school activities, a school

Elks defeat packers

Christmas came early to the Elk Point Elks when they became the first team to defeat the league-leading Bonnyville Pontiacs this season, with an enthusiastic crowd on hand for the Saturday evening game.

Friday night's game between the same teams was a 7-3 victory in Bonnyville's favor, and the first period of the return match showed every indication of another Bonnyville win, with the Pontiacs' Mitch Bouchard scoring the lone goal off assists by Roy John and Guy Vincent eight minutes into the game.

Nineteen minutes of play later, well into the second period, Denis Fontaine upped the ante for Bonnyville with another goal, assisted by Marcel Sylvestre and Roy John. However, this time the Elks answered back, with a goal by Terry Wozniak coming off as-

New category for lighting contest

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce has expanded their 1988 Lighting and Decorating Contest to include a new category: Apartment Windows and Balconies. Now those who live in 4-unit or larger buildings can compete in the annual event, simply by decorating windows and balconies to celebrate the festive season.

Residential and Commercial decorating categories, as in other years, will also be judged, with prizes of $25, $15 and $10 offered in each category. The evening of Wednesday, December 21 has been set as the time for the judges' decisions, so have your lights on between 7:00 and 9:00 p.m. and you could be a winner. Businesses will also be judged on their interior decorations, with the judges touring those during the afternoon of that day.

A letter received by the Town of Elk Point and the Chamber encouraging the sprucing up of downtown streetlight decorations was also discussed at the December 7 Chamber meeting, with Town Councillor Alvina Schuhmacher noting that this had come before Council at last Monday's meeting, and was sent to the Utilities Committee for consideration in the 1989 budget. It was noted that these lights are a sizable expense, and that it might be necessary to add to the decorations gradually over several years.

Chamber plans for the December 20 Christmas Extravaganza were discussed briefly, with more planning set for a meeting last Friday morning. The event will include shopping until midnight, a bonfire on Main Street, horse-drawn hay rides, a bingo-format contest with prizes totalling $800 'Elk Point Bucks' which can be spent at any of the participating businesses, for the adults, and a gift-stuffed Christmas stocking for the youngsters. Santa Claus and other special guests will be on hand, so plan to attend and help to make this a second annual success.

Two of the By-Election candidates, Adele Mandryk and Ed Buck, were on hand to brief the Chamber on their election platforms.

Check stops

To ensure the safe movement of traffic throughout our area during the upcoming holiday season, the Elk Point RCMP Detachment, in conjunction with the St. Paul Subdivision Highway Patrol, will be conducting a major traffic program. This will include an increased number of police check stops and a higher concentration of traffic law enforcement. Motorists are asked to use caution when approaching police check stops.

REMEMBER: Drive defensively, don't drink and drive. Buckle up and have a safe and enjoyable holiday season.

paper distributed in the community, a high profile for extracurricular activities, and input from a parent advisory group. He also advocated open communication between the staff on in-school budget decisions, discipline and recognition of contributions.

Mrs. Bryden called the Home and School Associations around the province 'strong grassroots structures' which focus on the cooperation between government, educators and parents as they discuss concerns regarding the schools and students.

'Why do you want to organize? What would you do? Who would you include in your membership?' Mrs. Bryden asked, before directing those present into groups for a brainstorming session.

Communication, parental involvement, parental belonging and group sharing of problems were cited as the 'Why?' answers, while items which would be attended to by an association included discussion of programs, scheduling, curriculum, input into policy handbook and local options, lobbying for access to community facilities, supervision of extracurricular activities, promotion of student counselling and career development, and involving the school and educators more in the community.

Interests were mainly local in nature, and the group favored involving students, teachers, parents, the school board, FCSS, sports coaches, and the business community.

'How and when, I will leave up to you,' Mrs. Bryden said in conclusion.

With the decision made to go ahead with the formation of an association, Diana Anderson was voted in as President, Carolyn Onusko as Vice President and Coral Tremblay as Secretary. Their first meeting was set for Wednesday, January 11 at 7:00 p.m.

Principal Hawkins then outlined the school's attendance and graduation policies, and asked for input on these from the parents, teachers and trustees. The advantages of spring versus fall graduations were discussed briefly.

The first problems to be undertaken by the new Parent Teacher Association will be those of alcohol and unacceptable language. A committee was set up to identify the problems and to formulate recommendations to be brought to the next meeting.

sists by George Ward and Glen Bodnar. The Elks tied the game with 4:30 left in the second period, Mike Boratynec scoring with the assistance of Kerry Loughran and Murray Scoggins.

Bonnyville once again edged ahead before the end of the period, with a second goal for Denis Fontaine, assisted by Brian Popowich and Roy John.

The third period, however, belonged to the Elks, with the hometown fans becoming increasingly jubilant when goals from Marvin Ference, assisted by George Ward and Murray Cochrane, and Glen Bodnar, assisted by Jeff Buck and Delwyn Slempp, tied the score and then took the lead, less than one minute apart in mid-period. Bonnyville made numerous onslaughts on the Elks goal, but were unable to hit their mark, thanks to Mike Scott's superb netminding and the diversionary tactics of the Elks defensemen.

We KNEW you could do it, Elks! Congratulations!!

Reform party to make all-out effort

"The Reform Party of Canada will make an all-out effort to contest the Beaver River by-election in 1989," says party leader Preston Manning.

"275,000 Westerners voted Reform in the last federal election, and we are hopeful that the people of Beaver River will elect the first Reformer to Parliament when the by-election is held next year."

Tom Holliday of Elk Point, interim president of the party's Beaver River constituency association, announced that the nomination meeting to select a Reform candidate for the by-election will be held at the Ukrainian National Hall in Smoky Lake on Monday, January 9, 1989, at 7:30 p.m.

"Deborah Grey, the 36-year-old high school teacher from Heinsburg who represented the party in the November 21 general election, is expected to let her name stand for nomination as the by-election candidate," said Holliday. Nomination papers for prospective Reform candidates must be filed with the party's constituency association executive by January 2, 1989.

"Deborah Grey did exceptionally well with limited campaign resources in the general election," said Manning. "Our Beaver River constituency association had scarcely been organized at the time the general election was called. We had less than 150 party members in the riding, and only an interim executive in place. Nevertheless, Deborah proved a clear winner at the all-candidate forums, and received over 4,000 votes."

Manning confirmed that he would personally campaign full-time on behalf of the Reform Party's Beaver River candidate, but would not himself be the candidate.

"The Reform Party is not a one-man band," said Manning. "We will be looking to our Beaver River candidate and organization to secure a beachhead for the party in Ottawa, while I continue to build and expand our 275,000-vote base in the West."

Manning explained that he felt a strong obligation to continue to build his own personal political relationship with the people of the Yellowhead riding where he received more than 11,000 votes in the November 21 federal election.

Manning also made clear that the Reform Party is concentrating exclusively on federal politics, and has no plans to become involved in provincial politics.

"The Reform Party's emphasis on 'fairness to the resource-producing regions' has attracted interest from people in regions like Atlantic Canada and northern Ontario," said Manning, "and the question of expansion to these regions will be considered at the party's 1989 General Assembly."

Christmastime's a-coming soon

You can feel it in the air—the excitement of the approaching holiday season, with bustling shoppers, sweet smells of festive baking wafting on the breeze, the sounds of familiar carols, the calendar crammed with concerts and parties and gatherings of all sorts.

Excitement—or is that stress?

Are we so rushed to get everything done, to find the perfect presents and the most beautiful tree, to make the most delicious cake and fourteen kinds of cookies, to get to all the events and to enjoy every single minute, that we will be worn to an absolute frazzle by the time the gifts are wrapped and the turkey is in the oven?

Is THAT what Christmas is all about—perfection? Will our families cease to love us if we don't find a Ninja Mutant Turtle or a size 7 sweater with pearl beading, if our Nanaimo bars stick to the pan and we lose the recipe for Fryingpan Cookies, if our tree looks like Charlie Brown's and if all our ornaments aren't color-coordinated? Probably not—but they may not forgive us if we wear ourselves out so we can't stay awake to eat Christmas dinner, or if we are so nervous about having everything just right that they wish they'd stayed home and eaten a can of spaghetti.

Please, let's give ourselves a gift—that of getting rid of our unrealistic expectations of what we have to do to make Christmas perfect. All that takes is being with those we care about—not spending all our January paycheques and staying up all night to scrub the ceiling because Aunt Minnie might notice if we don't.

Take time to enjoy it, won't you?

The time has come...

By Irene Magnusson

"The time has come, the Walrus said, to talk of many things," and at this week of the year, it had better be mostly Christmas! Only ten days left to the Big Day, and always a million things to do - right? I am not going to offer any solutions, or short cuts, or gift suggestions. What do I know about those things? I am perennially stumped, with my house only half cleaned, my baking comes mostly from the bakeshops, and I'm finding cheques are far and away the easiest gifts to wrap.

I am moved to shout a boisterous cry of thanks to the best helper I have around the place, useful summer or winter, always there full-strength, no coaxing necessary, seldom growing weary or fading away. That I spent the first forty years of my existence without the help of this invisible Aladdin is hard to believe - yet perhaps one could, even today. I, for one, don't relish the thought. Of course, I am referring to the obsequious Reddy Kilowatt.

When I crawl up from my slumbers, snug under my electric blanket, the persistent brr of my electric alarm clock, I reach out blindly, eyes still shut, to turn its morning call off, turn on my electric radio for the news, pull the cord on my electric light the better to see where I'm going as I stagger to the kitchen.

Here I place a left-over cup of coffee (made in my electric coffee-maker) into my electric micro-wave oven, set up the electrically-controlled thermostat, on my electrically activated furnace, so my toes won't freeze. I go to the bathroom, to wash my face in electrically heated water, pumped up from my well by an electrically activated pump, then run it down the drain, where it will be disposed of out into the jungle, after a time, by another electric motor.

Time for breakfast, having crawled into my electrically laundered and dried garments, some of which may have been touched here and there by my electric iron.

So I will open my electric refrigerator (where a tiny electric light pops on - even without my asking) remove a jug of electrically zapped milk which will keep for months, pour it on my cornflakes, and shove a slice of bread into the electric toaster. Meanwhile, I will open a can of electrically frozen orange juice, with my electric can-opener, mix some water with it, and go to the dining room which is brightly lit by my electric chandelier.

Since I have no one to talk to at breakfast, I may turn the electrically-powered television set on for a time.

What shall I do today? Start typing on my electronic typewriter? Or play my electronic organ for a while? Maybe I will play some records on the electric stereo - or make a tape, using my electric recorder. Certainly, if I'm going to town, I should plug in the electric block heater on the car - which itself is powered in a dozen ways by little jolts of electricity. First, I will look in my electrically cooled deep-freezer, perhaps find a roast, to cook later in the electric oven of my range ... or some chops to fry in the electric frying pan?

Enough of this foolishness, you know what I mean. And you too, know how very much we rely on the good old unseen power of electricity. In Ontario and Quebec, they call this power "the Hydro" - I presume that's short for "hydroelectricity," (hydro meaning water) and in the Eastern provinces, all electrical power is derived from water in some way or other, dams, rivers, waterfalls ... Perhaps ours is, too, but I have a notion some of it, at least, comes from some other power source, such as natural gas, or coal. Am I correct? At any rate, we don't normally call our kilowatts "Hydro."

So my blessings on the unseen stuff, that goes around corners, and doesn't make a sound, or scent, or smoke. I admit it CAN make the fun fly, if it gets in the wrong place at the wrong time, and is uncontrolled, and there are days - when we especially fear if it's very cold - when the lines seem to "run dry", and we are left, helpless and cold, without coffee, water or television or heat. These are the days when we really understand just how dependent we are on the singing wires, and the receptacles at our end of the line.

In keeping with the season, we are all aware and appreciative of the added beauty and cheerfulness all these (electrical) Christmas lights add to the winter scene - and what would a decorated little pine tree be - without its strings of twinklers??? Or how to cope with a turkey, without that electric carving knife? And Thank You, Thank You, to the inventor of that boon to womankind (and some kiddies!) the electric dishwasher, to be especially noted right after the turkey has had his hour of glory.

I may as well express another bit of gratitude, for an added convenience to the daily lives of we (poor souls) who live in the rural areas. In the past few months, our telephones have been undergoing changes, and many of us now enjoy our individual telephones - just like the town dwellers have had all along free. In reading a bit about this, I learned that we "only" have to pay $450 (or $5 per month) for this service, which of course is free to townfolks, the remaining $110 will be covered by the Heritage Trust Fund.

Of a total of 106,000 rural users, some thing like 25 percent have been converted, including mine about mid-November. They could have left mine alone, I didn't mind being a party line - but when did "progress" ask permission? So now I will pay $5 per month for the change-over, plus $4 per month for the wall phone, plus $6 or $7(?) for the desk phone, plus the original $10.13 for rental, the new 10 percent "Federal Telecommunications Tax", plus the regular minute charge for every long distance call I'll dare to make. If my calls come to about $50 in a month, I will be paying $30.13, over the actual toll charges. All I have to say is, they had better not decrease the pension cheques. We just won't be able to handle all these "progress" deals we are handed.

Total phones on AGT in the Elk Point area is 538, most of which should be converted by Christmas. We in Alberta have better equipment that they do in Sask., ours takes longer to convert, but will last better. (This from the horse's mouth). St. Paul will likely be the next area by 1992 - but I hope before then, I will get better reception. Just now my incoming voices are very weak!

So just 'hang tough' until Christmas! Maybe you can relax once the Big Day has come and gone!

Thank You

The Dahmer family would like to thank all those who worked on John's Campaign or on Election Day on his behalf.

We would also like to thank those who expressed their concern and sympathy in the form of telephone calls, cards or flowers. We greatly appreciated your thoughtfulness.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our sincere thanks to all our friends, neighbors and relatives for their many expressions of sympathy and standing by all of us in our time of bereavement with the passing of MRS. JOYCE STEC.

Many thanks to the Pioneer Circle Hall and the Ladies who served the lovely lunch. Also special thanks to Yewchin's Funeral Chapel Ltd. and Rev. Sam Donaldson for their outstanding service and to each and everyone of you who in one way or other, were involved in the Church Service.

Special mention of thanks given to all the pallbearers, who were the nephews of the deceased.

Your thoughtfulness will forever be remembered.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Melvina Young & Family

In Memoriam

HILLEBRAND, Raymond

In loving memory of a Dear Son, Brother and Uncle who passed away Dec. 12, 1987.

We watched you suffer, We watched you fight for life. All we could do was just watch you suffer.

When the time came we beared the pain.

You never deserved what you went through.

God took your hand and eased your pain

Which was time to part He eased your pain but broke our hearts.

If you could have spoken before you died.

These are the words you would have said.

"Life for me is past, I love you all to the last. Someday we'll meet again in a better land Never to part again As long as life and memories last We shall remember thee."

Sadly missed by your loving Mother, Brothers, Siter-in-laws, nieces and nephews.

AIDS

ASK A FAMILY LIFE EDUCATOR:
Is AIDS Easy To Get?

No. The AIDS virus (HIV) is only transmitted by certain risk behaviors. Those behaviors are: having unprotected sexual intercourse with an infected partner and sharing IV needles with an infected person. There are no cases of the virus being transmitted other ways, for example, hugging, touching, sharing dishes or washroom facilities.

ASK A PUBLIC HEALTH INSPECTOR:

What Is Good Quality Drinking Water?

First it must be safe, which means it should be free from disease causing germs and hazardous chemicals. Second, it must taste good and look clear (brown or cloudy water is not appealing). Finally, it should not form a mineral crust, eat away metals, or require the use of excessive soap due to its hardness. We compare water test results with the Guidelines for Canadian Drinking Water (Health and Welfare Canada) to judge its acceptability.

ASK A DENTAL HYGIENIST:

Can a permanent front tooth that has been knocked out of the mouth ever be put back in?

Yes, it should be replaced immediately and the child taken directly to the dentist. Here's what to do:

1. when you find the tooth, hold it by the crown, not the root.

2. if water is available, rinse any debris off under running water. DO NOT SCRUB or use any cleansing agents.

3. if the root is not fractured, gently replace the tooth in its socket. If you are unable to replace it, place the tooth in a wad of wet facial tissue or keep the root moist with your own saliva.

4. see a dentist AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, preferably within 30 minutes. If you don't have a family dentist to call, go to your Hospital Emergency Ward and they will contact a dentist for you.

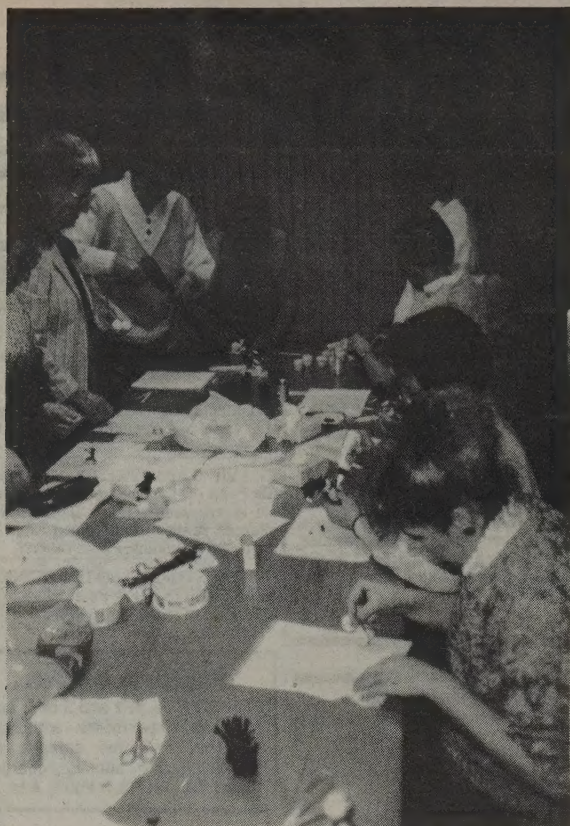

Remember, the faster the tooth is replaced in the socket, the greater the chance of success.

ASK A COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSE:

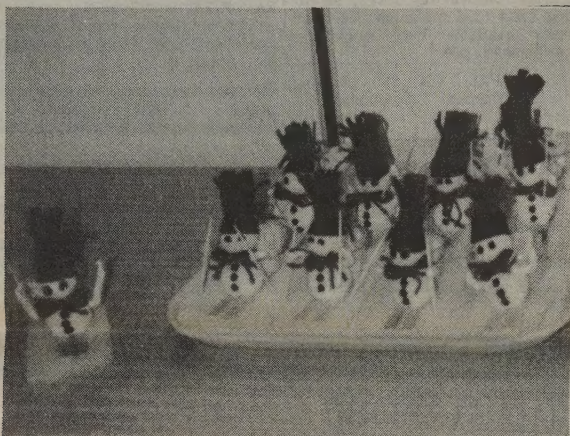

I have been getting conflicting messages from family and friends about when to start toilet training my 18 month old son. Can you help me sort this out?

Your child must be physically and emotionally ready for successful toilet training. Each child is different, but the average child is ready at the age of 30 months. Discuss ideas with your spouse so you agree on how to train your son. As a parent: find out the general signs of readiness, be prepared for setbacks and remember you are not alone.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY ELVES — Work on Christmas tray favors for the patients. Below are some of the finished products — row upon row of skiing snowmen.

Hospital auxiliary holds meeting

By Irene Magnusson

The evening of November 28, 1988, was the last meeting of the year for the Elk Point Hospital Auxiliary members, but it was much more than that. First, it was a workshop, when all the Auxiliary 'elves' got to work and made 30 or so tray favors for those unfortunate enough to find Christmas coming to their hospital bed. (And an interesting lot of little 'crafts' they are!)

The second part of the evening saw the group deal with the usual business affairs - minutes, finances, canteen. Chairlady Gloria Lecopoy, secretary Agnes Morosiuk and treasurer Bernie Kozicky handled it all efficiently. Violet McFadyen reported a need for more knitted articles for the canteen, while Diane Anderson offers to get a new Price List drawn up, also a new sign for the Canteen.

Members were urged to go up to the hospital on December 23, at 7:00 p.m. (a few minutes earlier, please) and take part in a Carol singing event planned for the residents and patients. We will sing the songs you all know - and which are such an integral part of Christmas.

Mrs. Anderson suggested needs for the hospital; these were considered by the auxiliary, and voted upon. Articles will be ordered, including a quantity of toys for the Pediatric department.

McFadyen and Elashuk had attended the November 17 N.E. Regional Auxiliaries Conference at Two Hills. McFadyen gave a report. The quilt undertaken by Auxiliaries earlier was on display, a very handsome effort, she said, and had been assembled from blocks made by many Auxiliaries, each showing the hospital logo, or name. Joan Nichols and Pat Mason, of Wainwright, had assembled and finished off the project.

Reports were received from Mundare, Smoky Lake and Redwater Auxiliaries, these groups do various things, such as canvassing for Red Cross, and landscaping their hospital grounds with flowers, for beautification.

Coming Conferences will be: February - St. Paul, May - Glendon, September - Cold Lake, and November - Mundare. All these N.E.R. Conferences will be held on the 3rd Thursday of each respective month.

There are 25 official Auxiliaries, with a total of 645 members, in the N.E. Region, she reported. A new method of choosing executive was decided upon, at the close of the Two Hills Conference. Speakers stressed the growing importance of Home Nursing Care, open to the needy, especially in that it allows many persons to continue in their own homes.

Wasy Elashuk then reported on the Annual Hospital Auxiliaries Convention the two had attended in Edmonton, November 22 to 25/88. This was the 40th Convention of Auxiliaries in Alberta, and was held in the Convention Center.

The official Historian, Helen McLinnon, has histories from 85 local Auxiliaries, and looks for more information to add to her books. Speakers touched on Diabetic Care over the years, and its progress; on camps for Diabetics; a history of when Federal and Provincial Health Care was instigated in Canada, and how some other countries have no health care, or assistance for seniors, available at all. Also a report on the "snail disease," a malady transmitted by micro-organisms carried by snails and acquired by using the water in which they live. Up to 50 percent of the population can be affected, in some countries, it was stated.

The Auxiliaries are dedicated to promoting more wheelchair accommodations - wherever required. There was good attendance, Wasy reported, with representations from 73 Auxiliaries, over 150 members present. Auxiliaries have raised and donated over $1 million in Alberta, it was said. Many other subjects were covered, in the 4-day Convention.

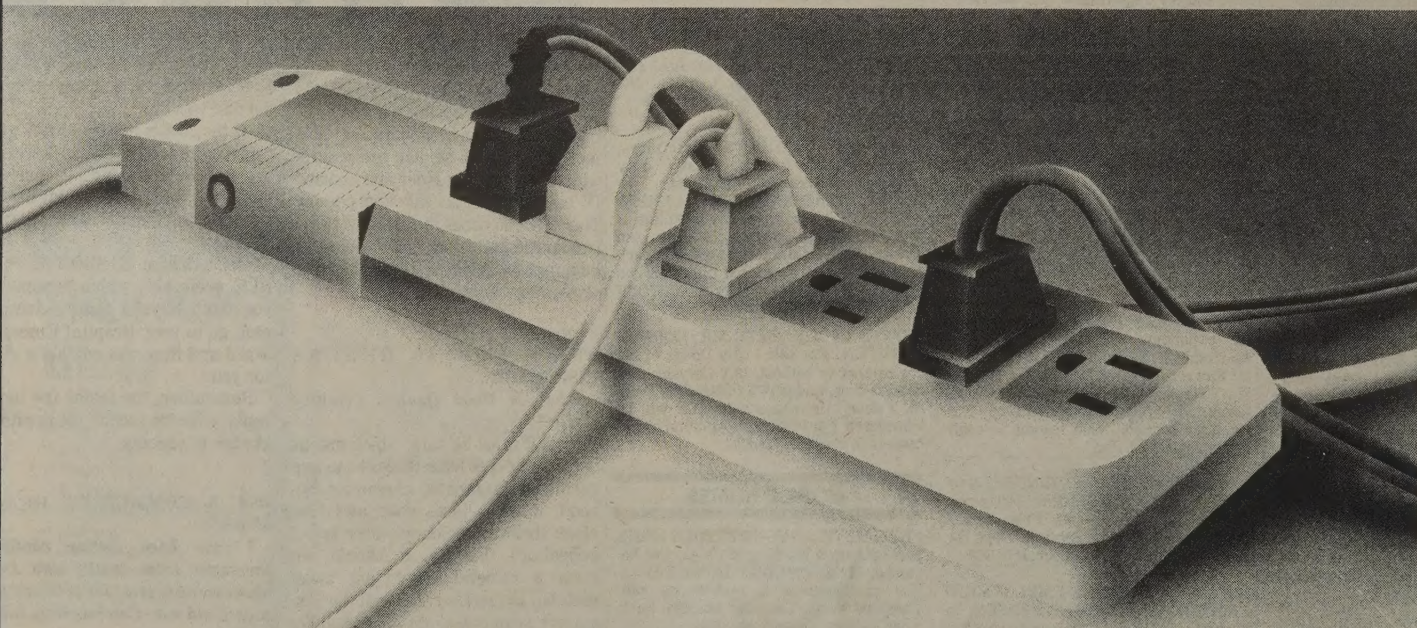

The Auxiliary does not hold a meeting in late December, but as usual, 4th Monday of January, 7:00 p.m., same place. Members were invited to a Christmas supper, December 12, at 6 p.m., by the Hospital Board.

The 3rd part of the evening was the Auxiliary's Christmas party, with an exchange of gifts by members, and a lovely lunch prepared by the hospital staff. This was much enjoyed, in the artfully decorated meeting room, the fifteen or so members present feeling it a fitting conclusion to a successful and useful year. See you at the Carol Singing!

Further Ed office closed for '88

Elk Point and District Further Education Council has announced that their office will be closed from December 12 to January 10, when they will hopefully be located in their new premises at 51 Street and 52 Avenue. Further Ed Council members, instructors and staff wish everyone a happy holiday season and look forward to seeing you in 1989.

What's news at the Library

It's party time this week during Storytime! We will be having games, a puppet show and a certain 'visitor' will be showing up. Tell Mom to bring the camera. There will also be refreshments served. Don't forget Friday, 10:30 a.m. on December 16, 1988. All of us are looking forward to a fun time.

The Library would like to thank the Elk Point Legion for their donation of two books: Canadian Legion, The Years Between 1926-1986—a history of the Alberta Northwest Territories Command; and No Man's Land by Victor Wheeler—the author writes of the men in the 50th Infantry Battalion of Calgary, Alberta of which he was one, and their struggles in the trenches during World War I in France.

We have many new books in our Consumer Corner, The Essential Guide to Prescription Drugs, How to Get More Heat For Your Fuel Dollar, Touche Ross Canadian Guide to Personal Financial Management, and the 1988 edition of the Delaney report on RRSPs and much more.

In our Christmas display, we have books on gifts, decorations, and traditions. Also available are books on drinks, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic, and numerous Christmas recipes.

NEW BOOKS—JUNIOR SECTION:
Four new books by Gary Larson, The Far Side, Bride of the Far Side, Valley of the Far Side and In Search of the Far Side.

Three new Sweet Valley Twins books, Second Best, Boys Against Girls, The Older Boy, also All-of-a-Kind Family by Sydney Taylor and The Blossoms Meet the Vulture Lady by Betsy Byars.

There are three new music cassettes: Racing After Midnight by Honeymoon Suite. Ooh Yeah by Daryl Hall and John Oates, and Even Worse by 'Wierd Al' Yankovic.

LEGION PRESENTATION—Helen Moneta, President of the Royal Canadian Legion, Elk Point Branch No. 151, presents copies of 'No Man's Land' and 'The Royal Canadian Legion,' and 'The Years Between' which is a history of the Alberta-Northwest Territories Command—1926-1986 (a Diamond Jubilee project), to the Elk Point Public Library. Accepting for the Library is Assistant Librarian Diane Fraess. The Legion hopes these books will help anyone interested to better understand the activities and interests of the group, and how well the country has been served by the armed forces in war or peace. Fraess thanked Moneta on the Library's behalf. Photo by Irene Magnusson.

Red Cross zone meeting in Elk Point

By Irene Magnusson

The fall Regional (Zone) Red Cross meeting convened in the F.G. Miller High School in Elk Point, at 7:00 p.m., December 1, with Chairman Margaret Modin presiding.

This is the meeting where reports of the season's Water Safety program are usually heard, however this year was different. The local Red Cross groups have found it increasingly difficult to manage this program, and last year offered it into the management of the Town of Elk Point, who have been successful in finding a group willing and capable of taking over this very important service, namely the Elk Point Lions Club. All management of the program will be carried out by them.

In keeping with this, a motion carried, whereby "When the Elk Point Lions Club takes over the (local) Red Cross Swimming Program, then all Water Safety Funds collected for that purpose shall be turned over to them, to be used for that purpose only." Some up-grading of the facilities at Whitney have already been undertaken, and the fund of over $7500, collected locally for Water Safety, will help keep the program going, and ensure the young people of the community have access to Water Safety instruction.

Reports followed. Vera Fakely, for the Lindbergh Branch, reported the group has made 5 full-size quilts, some of the material donated by Margaret Gibson. In addition 1 quilt was donated to the group by the Martin Ladies group. In addition, 43 articles were created and sent to Head Office for sale, (knitted, crocheted, etc, articles). Awards were presented in the area: Maude Krissa received a Certificate of Merit, while Georgina Morris and Dora Scott each were presented with Service Pins from Red Cross.

The Elk Point Branch, reported by Violet McFadyen, made 3 quilts, and 7 other articles, all sold locally; and put on a Tea and Sale, the proceeds of which was $431, all of which was forwarded to Red Cross. The Branch, consisting of 12 members, also made up and sent in 120 'health bags.'

Iryne Buck and Violet McFadyen attended the Annual Convention, held this year in the Sheraton Plaza Hotel in Edmonton, June 24-25. One news item was that the Banff Sale (of hand-made items donated by members) had not been too successful, although $10,000 was realized, this is down considerably from the previous year. There is consideration of discontinuing the effort. The Convention in 1989 will be a one-day affair, held in Calgary, in June.

The Red Cross banner was carried by members in both the Canada Day parade and the Remembrance Day parade, in Elk Point.

The Zone executive remains as follows: Secretary - Iryne Buck, Treasurer - Hazel Hannah, Vice-Chairwomen - Wasy Elashuk and Violet McFadyen. Margaret Modin is Regional Chairperson by appointment.

Violet McFadyen has again agreed to be Campaign Chairman, making this her 7th successive year serving in that capacity - all of these being successful campaigns, with the area contributing well above the allotted quota, proving she did her job, conscientiously and well. Area Captains will be selected later.

The meeting closed with lunch served by the Elk Point ladies.

Woodworking shop opens

By Irene Magnusson

A new business in Elk Point has opened at the corner of 50th Street and Railway Avenue (the old Habiak Garage). Dorothy Ackeral has set up a wood-working shop, where she is already making children's furniture - and proposes to start a line of lawn-and-patio furniture in the New Year.

Constructed mainly of plywood, these useful and attractively decorated tables, benches, toyboxes, etc., appear to be sturdy and safe for children's use. Certainly tots will love the animal heads painted on the chairbacks and elsewhere.

Dorothy Ackeral, with her husband, came to Elk Point about three years ago. She found time hanging on her hands so started a bit of wood-working, and finally found "an ideal spot" in the large bright room at 50th and Railway Ave., where she has set up her woodworking machinery. She creates her own patterns, and carefully selects non-toxic paints and finishes for her creations.

Ackeral, at her Open House on Dec.

2 and 3, says she will keep her prices competitive, and a variety on hand, as she "has a million ideas," one of which is 'playhouses' - to be tackled in the New Year. Her assistant in these projects is Brenda Smith. 'Autumn Leaves Woodworking' will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., weekdays. Drop in and see for yourself.

Watch for the Community Basket to be brought by a neighbor. All the instructions are in the basket. You may contribute or not, just cross off your name and pass on the basket with $10 to $15 worth of contents. Take what you like from the basket, pay what you think those items are worth, then put in about that same value of small items, baking, whatever.

On Nov. 25, two of Clandonald's Seniors challenged Blackfoot Seniors for the Curtis Trophy from Marwayne. John MacGillivray, at only 89 years of age, and his partner Frank Coren won at shuffleboard to bring the trophy to Clandonald.

Congratulations to Alice and Harold Schoonmaker, formerly of Clandonald, now living in Vermilion, for staying happily married for 65 years as of Dec. 6.

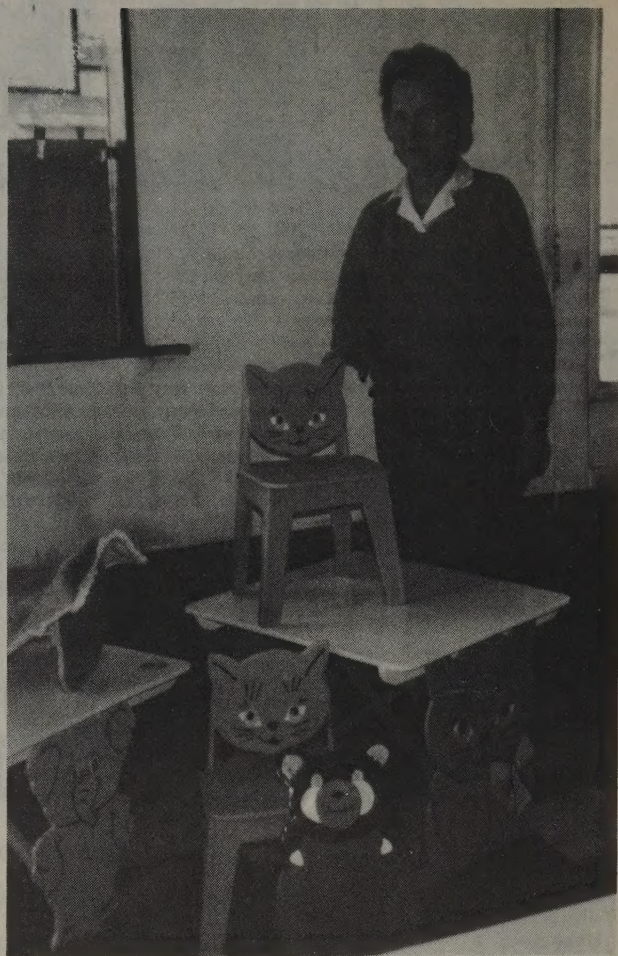

Our sympathy is with the family and friends of Mim Ross, who passed away on Dec. 6. Mim and Bob and their families have been part of Clandonald life for many years.

On a happy note, two new baby boys have arrived: the first, Brett Wade, to Doreen (Nelson) and Daryl Youngmans on Wed., Dec. 7, and the second on Dec. 9, to Helen and Pat Brodwin, named Mark Thomas.

The Ag Society Christmas Film Show was a success on Sunday afternoon. The show was 'Willow'. Santa arrived with his bag of candy and orange filled bags, then had to be off to put in a visit to the Landonville Hall where the annual Potluck and Christmas party was underway.

There will be 8 p.m. Mass as well as at midnight in the Catholic Church on Christmas Eve. At the Bible Fellowship Church there will be Christmas Morning Service with extra readings and music by some church families.

To all of you, we wish a happy and blessed Christmas, and peace, good health and joy in the New Year.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 - Dec 21)

You are the stargazer. Don't be too outspoken at the wrong time. Remind yourself to be patient and realistic. You continue to ride the crest of a wave concerning your job. Follow up on a holiday - related project. You aspire to politics. Go for it and win!

Gymnasts enjoy Vegreville fun meet

ELK POINT GYMNASTS — Attended a fun meet in Vegreville on Saturday, December 3. Only Kara Serniak and Jaime Spence were competing for marks, and they placed in all events: floor routine, vault, uneven bars and balance beam. The other Elk Point gymnasts took part in demonstration events, receiving comments on each performance. All enjoyed their day and are anxious to learn

Clandonald winter carnival planned

By Shirley Osinchuk

The third annual Winter Carnival is being planned for Clandonald on Feb. 3 and 4. That is not as far away as it seems. As always, this will be a low-cost family fun weekend.

Starting on Friday morning, the Elementary students will build their snow sculptures in the school yard. The Junior Highs will judge them in the afternoon.

At 12 noon, on Mainstreet Clandonald, the Human Dog Team and Toboggan Pull will be a challenge to local businesses and groups to dress up and get the carnival off to a good start.

The popular Dimetime Carnival will be in the school on Friday evening, put on by the staff and students. 'Shoot Out the Candle,' 'Have Your Weight Guessed,' 'Fishpond' and 'Cakewalk' are some of the favorites.

The Board of Trade will be cooking their delicious Pancake Brunch in the Hall on Saturday morning, then it's over to the Skating Party at the arena. The Ag Society holds races and games and free skating for everyone, and the Knights of Columbus serve free hot chocolate and doughnuts.

Outside, snow conditions permitting, Ed Radesh and Richard Osinchuk will be giving sleigh rides around town with their teams of horses.

Also during the afternoon, the 4-H Beef Club will be holding a Teen Dance in the Hall, and the Friendship Club will be having Bingo.

After all that activity, everyone will be ready for a potluck supper in the Hall, organized by the 4-H Sewing Club, which will provide the juice and coffee.

The final event will be the Games Night, also in the Hall, sponsored by the Fish and Game Association. You are invited to come and play board games or cards and even bring your favorite to play.

There will be something for everyone in the family, a good time to get together with friends and neighbors, at very little cost.

Bring Home the World

BRING FOREIGN STUDENT EXCHANGE TO YOUR COMMUNITY

Educational Foundation for Foreign Study is expanding its network of Area Representatives. We are looking for people who will VOLUNTEER their time to work with local high schools and bring foreign exchange into their community. Area Reps choose local families to host a high school student from Europe, Asia, Australia or Latin America, and then supervise both students and host families throughout the year. As well, Area Reps act as a link between students, host families and the national EF office.

EF Foundation trains Area Representatives, covers all related expenses and supports you in your activities throughout the year.

So bring the world home to Elk Point, and start making friendships that will last a lifetime.

Recipient of the Alberta Human Rights Award
December 8, 1988

Alaine Skoreyko ~ we salute you!

In 1975, Alaine Skoreyko of Calgary established the Society for the Prevention and Elimination of Discrimination and Stereotyping (SPEDS), an educational program designed to promote awareness and tolerance of racial and cultural differences. SPEDS was officially adopted by the Calgary school board in 1987 and is now used by teachers throughout Alberta.

In recognition of Alaine Skoreyko's work, we have selected her to receive the 1988 Alberta Human Rights Award. Each year this award is given to an individual who has made outstanding efforts to promote fairness, tolerance and understanding among all Albertans.

The award also commemorates the anniversary of the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations in 1948. The Declaration forms the basis for all civil and human rights laws in Canada, including Alberta's Individual's Rights Protection Act.

New look of historical society

By Irene Magnusson

The Elk Point and District Historical Society seems to be undergoing a metamorphosis, a change from a long waiting period into one of coming activity - and an exciting new project on the horizon.

Can it really be happening? Will the long-worked for, sometimes despaired-of, tantalizing prospect of something being done to preserve the historic sites of the first European activities in the vicinity finally receive the attention the Historic Society has traditionally maintained they deserve?

WE HAVE THE GRANT! A whole whopping $227,050 worth! as announced by Chairman Frank Mayner. Which looks like a great lot - when you think of paying the grocery bill - but not so much when you are thinking restoration of long-decayed fur trading forts.

So we will not be surprised when we learn that total - or even partial - restoration is not in the present plans.

However something will commence next spring, and in a year or two, according to the team of experts in such matters who will come to us from the University of Calgary to do the work (properly!) there should indeed be a good reason to go down there by the river, where the 200-year-old old Buckingham House and Fort George fur trading posts once stood, to have a look around.

Only a year ago, our Mary Bennett, long concerned with this work, was still urging consideration of this project. She would be pleased with this news.

At the December 5 meeting of the Historical Society, a number of new faces appeared - younger citizens taking an interest in the preservation of our heritage, a welcome sight to some of the older members who may at times have felt they were walking alone on this trail.

Sheila Thompson will head the "Park Committee", ensuring pursuit of the landscaping of the new park, where the long-awaited Mural now stands, just west of the Library.

The Annual meeting was planned for January, with a Nominating committee now in search of volunteers willing to serve on the executive of the revitalized Society.

There will be a continuing need for sources of funding, as the Mural project left the coffers of the Society depleted - still, the group is viable and enthusiasm undampened.

The prospect of development - at last - of the area's long-known but inaccessible historic attractions is exciting and encouraging.

Several innovative ideas were put forward, to enhance the enjoyment of visitors coming to view the Mural, and to enable them to absorb the full impact of the massive project. A spring 'unveiling' is in the cards, plans to be announced later. Watch for them - you will surely want to be a part of this on-going saga, and truly historic event.

Recreation & Cultural board annual report

December 7, 1988

Since the organizational meeting, September 16, 1987, this board has dealt with a broad range of items and has accomplished much.

This report is divided into four areas, administration, facilities, leadership, and programs, with details of Board's activities listed in appropriate topic areas.

Under Administration, the addition of staff to provide an outlet for public contact through the Recreation and Culture Office was very important. Having full time staff, allowing the office to be open on a regular basis and programming provided positive feedback and recognition. The staff included the position of Recreation Aid (P.E.P.) and three Summer Student positions under S.T.E.P.

The largest task of the Board was to revise the Master Plan. With the assistance of Barry Romanko, Regional Recreation Consultant, St. Paul and the foot work and tabulation skills of Summer Staff the Master Plan was completed. Adoption by the Board came in July, third reading by Town Council in September and Alberta Parks and Recreation approval arrived in October. Completion of the Master Plan qualified the Board for C.R.C. funding and put Elk Point into 1991, with planning and development of recreational needs.

The Board also required a handbook of Policy and Guidelines to be developed. Again with the assistance of Barry Romanko this was completed in October. This document includes Bylaws governing the Board and Areas of Emphasis, stating the purpose and goals of the Board with the "WHO" and "WHEN" to be added eventually.

C.R.C. Funds in the amount of $15,600.00 were disbursed among seven local applicants. The Recreation Aid developed an in-house form to be used by the groups, in their application for funding. The Board was allotted $5600.00 for their own operations.

In keeping with good public relations, the Board entertained many delegations over the past year, some of which were, The Elk Point Light Horse Club, Ag. Society, Water Safety Group, Jeanette Boulet and Doug McPherson presenting their various ideas to the Board.

One of our Board members resigned from the Board. Miss Holly Burton, our Race Walking Star, returned to Edmonton to teach, and her place on the Board was filled by John Emery, who recently moved to Elk Point with Westmin Resources.

By spring of 89, a pamphlet of recreation facilities and programs will be available for general distribution in F.C.S.S. packages, and at the Tourist Booth.

1988 has been particularly exciting with the development of facilities.

The ABCD Grant made campsites, x-country ski trails and hiking paths a reality and with the financial assistance provided by the Lions Club the new ball park is complete. The Ball Park will relieve the congestion on ball diamonds in the Town of Elk Point.

A steering committee has been set up to research the building of a new Recreation Center. A grant for an engineering, feasibility and marketing study will be applied for shortly.

The Elk Point Municipal Recreation and Cultural Board was involved in many leadership roles over the year.

Members representing the board participated in the Trade Fair, Elk Point Tourism Action Plan, and Energize 88 in Edmonton, Mural Park Advisory Board, and Information Night.

The Board selected local residents for recognition in Celebration 88 Awards, Alberta Historical Resources Foundation Awards, and Energize 89.

Recreation Staff were involved in a successful Participation Challenge against St. Paul and in helping with Canada Day festivities.

The Board became a member of the North Eastern Alberta Recreation Association. This gives an opportunity for Recreation Directors to get together once a month and benefit by each others experiences, bringing ideas to home communities.

Programming, although on a limited basis, has been very successful as well.

Programs for school age children were very popular. The kids participated in Golf Lessons, Bicycle Rodeo, and Swimming Program in St. Paul.

The Summer Playground Program was the most successful ever. The summer Club 3/4 was initiated, and participation of parents encouraged.

In conclusion, the Elk Point Municipal Recreation and Cultural Board will continue to encourage the co-operation of groups and clubs among themselves, in providing better programs and leadership. Clubs and groups operating their own facilities would be encouraged to work with the Recreation and Cultural Board in promotion of their programs. The Board should continue with programming in areas where other groups are not providing programs.

Small physical improvements to the Recreation and Culture Office may make it more appealing and the purchase of an exterior sign may enhance public awareness.

The first year of operation by the Recreation and Culture Board has gone very well, and members can feel confident that their contributions have been worthwhile and that better things are yet to come.

Correction

In our December 7 story regarding the three candidates in today's Town By-Election, Lawrence Pidluzny was misquoted as having said that he felt the Town should plan for increased capacity of the water treatment plant, when he actually said that the Town should plan to replace deteriorating water mains at such time as funds permit. Our apologies for this error.
